

In partnership with

The Protection of Migrants' Rights in the European Union A Mediterranean Perspective

Director: Prof. Giuseppe Cataldi

14-22
JUNE
2017

Following the success of the previous two years of activities, the Centre of Excellence Jean Monnet on Migrants' Rights in the Mediterranean launches the

2nd SUMMER SCHOOL

OPEN DOORS

on

Migration, (Sea) Border Control and Human Rights

The event will take place from 14 - 22 June 2017 in partnership with the Queen Mary University of London and the International Organization for Migration (IOM).

It aims to combine scientific and practical knowledge on crucial topics of international law of the sea, migration and human rights law.

VENUE

The Open Doors Summer School will be held in Italy at the University of Naples "L'Orientale" and at the Vesuvian Institute Campus in Castellammare di Stabia, which overlooks the enchanting Bay of Naples, not far from Ercolano, Pompeii, Sorrento, Amalfi, Positano and the Isle of Capri.

The Institute is an ideal place for Open Doors Summer School since it combines knowledge with the traditions of archeology, history, art, environment, good food and conviviality.

For further information on cultural activities: www.jmce migrants.eu or www.vesuvianinstitute.org

SPEAKERS

Among the confirmed speakers there are members of international Organizations and EU Agencies, public officers, practitioners, Non-governmental organizations and, of course, academics from various prestigious European Universities.

Language: English

The OPEN DOORS Summer School can be credited with ECTS (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System credit)

CONTACT DETAILS: PRESS@JMCCEMIGRANTS.EU - WWW.JMCCEMIGRANTS.EU